

Indigenous Churches

By Bob C Green

Old Paths Publications, Incorporated, United States, 2015.
Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The book Indigenous Churches by Dr. Bob Green is written from the perspective of a missionary church planter. Having planted churches in the USA and Latin America, Dr. Green writes from 48 years of experience. He seeks to provide the church planter with answers to questions concerning How To start and Establish an Autonomous (Indigenous) Church. There is information that deals with the primary considerations of who, where, what and what not. This book contains details concerning the Biblical principles and the pattern for church planting followed by the Apostles. Church planters should be sent from a local church to a local church. Churches should be planting churches. There are sample documents such as Statements of Faith, Constitutions and By-laws. The writer has made every effort to provide a manual for beginning and establishing new Indigenous (self-governing, self-supporting and self-propagating) New Testament Baptist Churches.
