Random House Large Print, 2014. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "This is a lyrical guide that addresses the deep human yearning to make a difference. It's full of indelible stories reminding us that, yes, helping people is hard--but it's both possible and infinitely rewarding. A Path Appears offers practical steps that any of us can take to empower others, and ourselves." --Anne Rice "Nobody clarifies the social challenges of our time, or the moral imperative to help meet them, better than Nick Kristof and Sheryl WuDunn. Their latest book, A Path Appears, offers an inspiring roundup of the many simple and effective ways in which we can lend our hearts and talents to grow hope and opportunity both at home and around the globe--and an important reminder that just because we can't do everything doesn't mean we shouldn't do something." --President Bill Clinton "Nick Kristof and Sheryl WuDunn have done us all a great service by shining a light on the problems faced by the poor. These stories of real people struggling for survival and opportunity serve as a powerful reminder that poverty is complex and painful, but the call to action doesn't need to be. With insight, compassion and optimism, Kristof and WuDunn show us that we can all play a role in making the world a better place. A Path Appears is a compelling read that can't help but to educate and energize." --Bill and Melinda Gates, co-chairs of the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation "Cold facts, flesh and blood stories - the written word is their loud hailer. They write, we read, and our world view is not the same. Nick and Sheryl's meticulous arguments and free flowing eloquence is what inspires their readers to become activists.myself included."...
