Excerpt: . . . 33 Fourth grade. . 29 Third grade 27 Second grade 18 First grade 12 Kindergarten 26 Total 184 The present school building can accommodate 135 pupils. This necessitated half-day sessions in the third and fourth grades; also the use of the rooms in the basement of the chapel for school purposes, which are inconveniently situated for this purpose. The number of pupils is likely to increase in the near future. Proper provision should be made for a suitable school building. Officers quarters. ---There are six sets of quarters, in which are two families each, one upstairs, one downstairs. In some of them there are common entrances, baths, and toilets for servants, which is objectionable. As any increase in the number of cadets will bring more officers for duty at the academy proper provision should be made for officers quarters. In view of the large number of young married officers on duty at the academy, I believe buildings of the apartment house type are desirable. THE HOTEL. The needs of a suitable hotel have been set forth in previous reports. COMMENDATION. The military departments and business methods of the United States Military Academy are well administered; harmony and good feeling prevail; discipline is well maintained, and the tone of the entire command is very high. DETAIL OF OFFICERS AS INSTRUCTORS. Officers detailed for duty at the Military Academy should be permitted to remain, if satisfactory, for at least four years, regardless of any other detached...
